MEMBERS' MEETING NOTIFICATIONS

You can elect to receive notice under subsection 249J(1) of the Corporations Act 2001 of meetings of Members of Service One Mutual Limited.

Attendance at the Annual General Meeting, and other meetings of Members, of Service One Mutual Limited enables the Members:

- to participate in the governance of the body corporate
- to ask questions about, and comment on, the management of Service One Mutual Limited, its financial standing and performance
- to ask the auditor of Service One Mutual Limited questions about the conduct of the audit of Service One Mutual Limited and the preparation and content of the auditor's report, and
- to vote on any proposal to amend the constitution of Service One Mutual Limited or on any other matter in relation to the management of Service One Mutual Limited.

Service One Mutual Limited must also inform you that:

- notice of meetings informs Members about matters in relation to which they may wish to attend a meeting
- as a Member of Service One Mutual Limited, who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a meeting, you may appoint a proxy to attend and vote on your behalf at the meeting
- if you do not elect to receive a notice, Service One Mutual Limited is not required to give you notice of its meetings, and
- despite that you may elect not to receive notice of its meetings, you may at any time request Service One Mutual Limited to give you personal notice of the meetings.

If Service One Mutual Limited has not received your election within 21 days of this Notice being given, it will be taken that you have not made the election to receive notices.

NOTICE OF ELECTION TO RECEIVE REPORTS

Service One Mutual Limited is not required to send copies to a Member of the Reports mentioned in paragraphs 314 (1) (a) and (b) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Reports) if the Member does not elect to receive the Reports pursuant to this notice.

For a financial year, the Reports comprise:

- the Financial Report
- the Directors' Report
- the Auditor's Report on the Financial Report, and
- the Concise Report (if one is produced).

The Reports set out information about:

- the financial position and performance of Service One Mutual Limited
- the efficiency with which Service One Mutual Limited is being managed, and
- the financial risks to which Service One Mutual Limited is exposed.

Service One Mutual Limited must also inform you that:

- if you do not elect to receive the Reports, Service One Mutual Limited is not required to send copies of the Reports to you, and
- despite that you may elect not to receive the Reports, or not making an election, you may at any time elect to receive the Reports.

You will be taken to have not elected to receive the Reports if Service One Mutual Limited has not received the election within 21 days of this Notice being given.

DIRECT MARKETING, MEMBER MEETING NOTICE AND ISSUING OF REPORTS PREFERENCES

I would like to opt in to the following communication preferences:

Marketing (this includes product and service information, competitions, invitations to Member events, corporate social responsibility news and other direct marketing material).

Member meetings/reports (this includes AGM and other Member meeting notifications, Service One Mutual Limited's Annual Report and information on how to vote for Board elections (when relevant)).

NOTE: because the Member magazine contains important corporate information and updates on accounts and current services, these will be sent when published with statements even if you opt out of marketing communication.

Please note if no preferences are selected, the default options will apply and that is Y to direct marketing and N to notification of Member meetings and reports.

PRIVACY, ANTI MONEY LAUNDERING AND COUNTER TERRORIST FINANCING

The types of information Service One Mutual Limited collects from or on its Members and holds are determined by the shared business needs of our Members and Service One Mutual Limited and/or required by legislation such as the Corporations Act 2001, the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 and taxation laws. You can view our Privacy Policy on our website at serviceone.com.au or ask our staff to provide you with a copy. Among other things, the Policy sets out in details why and how we collect certain Member information, the circumstances in which we may disclose it, how we secure that information and your rights to access and correct your information and make a complaint if you consider we have breached our own Policy.

By making this application:

1. You acknowledge that you have read and accepted our Privacy Policy or will obtain a copy of our Privacy Policy and contact us within two (2) weeks if you do not accept it.
2. You agree that we may need to collect additional information from you to enable us to comply with anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing and other laws.
3. You acknowledge that we may refuse to provide you with a designated service if after our independent investigation we consider that you are not the person you claim you are.
4. You acknowledge that we are required by law to monitor transactions on accounts you may open (including loan accounts) you hold with us and that we may be required by law to disclose certain matters to AUSTRAC in compliance with anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing laws.
5. You acknowledge that we may be prohibited by law from effecting some Internet banking transactions to some overseas jurisdictions and/or involving certain persons.
6. You acknowledge that your transactions could be delayed, blocked or your accounts frozen if we believe on reasonable grounds that complying with your request may be in breach of the law.
7. Notwithstanding anything else in this statement, you may, at any time, advise us that you do not wish to receive any direct marketing communication. You may do this via letter, email, fax as indicated below or in person at any Branch of SERVICE ONE.
